FOOLED BY BLUFF OF MONEY LENDER

Already Anna Gould Has Paid Out $500,000 to Clear Up Prince de Sagan's Debts.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Parls, November 29.—The Duchess de Talleyrand, who was Anna Gould, to-day ended her fight with a Gould, to-day ended her fight with a money lender for the possession of a pair of trousers, an iyory back scratcher and fifty-seven other personal articles belonging to her husband. Comte Helio de Talleyrand-Perigord, Prince de Sagan While the duchess claims a victory, the matter was compromised, and the money lender secured $4,000.

Since Anna Gould married De Talleyrand, after divorcing Count Boni leyrand, after divorcing Count Bond de Castellane, she has paid out $500,000 to clear up his debts. However, a few of his creditors remain unpaid and among these was the money-lender. among these was the money-lender. He has made frequent attempts to collect the money but without success. During the past few days the walls in the Etelle quarter have been covered with numerous large yellow placards reading as follows:

"Sale by authority of justice.

"Paris, No. 126 Avenue Malakoff, at the home of Comte Helie de Talley-rand, Saturday, November 29.

"A sale will be held at all hears of the day of objects seized from the Comte and not claimed by his wife, An na Gould, of the following articles: "Moustache comp. two nail brushes, one pair kid gloves, size $1-2; two seals bearing the arms of the Comte; one ivory backscratcher, one fur torque, three fine linen night robes, one pair trousers, one pair of black braces, two patent razors, one handbag and imerous other articles."

Despite the widesproad publicity given the sale, not a prospective pur-chaser attended, the balliff being the only person to enter the house during the day. The officer promptly select the articles mentioned in the notice end remained on guard for several hour. In the meantime the bailiff's drab automobile stood outside the Taldrab automobile stood cutside the Talleyrand house and attracted the attention of all passersby.

As a matter of fact, the French law does not permit of an auction sale at a private house, and had the Comte looked into the law, he would have found the money lender to be merely

In the meantime the bailiff's bluff worked, and the settlement was "The Duchess de Talleyrand, in connection with the affair, said: "The duke has not mentioned the affair and I do not care to upset him by going into the details. I suppose, however, it is the work of some money lander. As these persons have already. lander. As these persons have already received over $460,000 of the duke's inheritance from his mother, I feel they have been amply paid."

COLLEGE TRAINING

Methodists Subscribe $1,800 for Education of Preachers-Delegates Elected.

BY MAMIE BAYS.
Charlotte, N. C., November 29.—The session of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, this morning was mark-

Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, this morning was marked by the transaction of several items of business of importance. Among other things, $1,800 was subscribed toward the education of eighteen young men who were preparing for the ministry, but who are not able to pay the cost of college education.

Rev. J. I. Cunninggim, in addressing the conference on this subject of ministerial training and supply, stated that three-fourths of the preachers of Southern Methodism to-day have no collegiate training and in most instances this be due to lack of money. The last of the six lay delegates to the general conference elected was Frank M. Wedner, of Asheville. The alternate lay delegates elected are F. M. Durfee, of Hendersonville: S. I. Rogers, of Franklin, and J. W. Harris, of High Point. The six elerical delegates were elected as follows: Plato T. Durham, of Winston-Salem; Gilbert T. Rowe, of Greensboro; J. H. Weaver, of Monroe; H. K. Boyer, of Winston-Salem; Lee T. Mann, of Statesville; F. F. Marr, of 'Charlotte. Three of these delegates are presiding claers—Messrs, Durham, Rowe and Mann, of the Winston, Greensboro and Statesville districts, respectively. The alternate lay delegates elected are H. M. Blair, editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate; E. L. Bain, of Winston-Salem, and C. W. Byrd, of Greensboro.

A resolution was adopted requesting the college of bishops to hold the session of this conference earlier in the month so the preachers may be with their congregations on Thanksgiving Day and secure collections for the children's home. Three preachers were received by transfer from other conferences as follows: Frank Saler, from the North Georgia Conference, E. B. Try, from the Louislana Conference, T.

Try, from the Louislana Conference, and A. G. Shaplan, from the New Mexico Conference.

One preacher was received from another church into this conference—T. J. Ogburn, an elder in the Methodist Protestant Church.

The call of the twenty-second question was completed and the characters of all of the members of the conference were passed; the answer "Nothing against him." being given regarding every member of the body.

An afternoon session was held during which several of the reports of the conference boards and committees were submitted and adopted.

One of these reports was that of the committees are submitted and adopted.

One of these reports was that of the committees on temperance. The report recommended that the conference pledge its support in the temperance sentiment of the State, and that members of the conference use their influence to secure the strict enactment of the law prohibiting the shipment of intoxicants into prohibition territory.

The anniversary of the conference board of missions was held this evening. Rev. E. H. Rawlings, D. D., a member of the Virginia Conference and educational secretary of the board of missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, delivered the address.

DuVal in Hustings Court, Part II. About 500 letters will be addressed 1. It is absolutely the only Appliance of the kind on the market to-day, and in it are embodied the principles that inventors have sought after for years.

2. The Appliance for retaining the rupture cannot be thrown out of position.

3. Being an air cushion of soft rub-ber it clings closely to the body, yet never blisters or causes irritation. A meeting of the Swansboro School and Civic League will be held to-4. Unlike the so-called pads used in other trusses, it is not cumbersome or unranged by the control of the cont school building. Plans will be made 5. It is small, soft and pliable, and positively cannot be detected through the clothing. for launching a campaign to secure funds for the purpose of buying equipment for the Swansboro playgrounds 6. The soft, pliable bands holding the Appliance do not give one the unpleasant sensation of wearing a harmore was the money can be had.

There is nothing about it to get foul, and when it becomes soiled it can be washed without injuring it in the least.

8. There are no metal springs in the appliance to torture one by cutting and bruising the flesh.

9. All of the material of which the Appliances are made is of the very best that money can buy, making it a durable and safe Appliance to wear.

10. My reputation for honesty and fair dealing is so thoroughly established by an experience of over thirty years of dealing with the public, and my prices are so reasonable, my terms so fair, that there certainly should be no hesitancy in sending free coupon to-day.

Many Paying Taxes.

Judging from the amount of layer

Judging from the amount of taxes collected by County Treasurer D. M. Walker, who for the past few days has been stationed in Swansboro, a large vote will be polled by citizens of that suburb in the next primary. The Swansboro School and Clyle League did good work in urging the people to register. Several hundred stood in line all day yesterday to pay taxes on real estate and personal property. Rev. W. A. Cooper, the new paster of Central Methodist Church, will conduct regular services to-day for the first time. Mr. Cooper arrived in South

Dear Sir:—

I began using your Appliance for the cure of rupture (I had a pretty bad case) I think in May, 1995. On Newment in 1995, I quit using it. Since that time I have not needed or used it. I am well of rupture and rank myself among those cured by the Brooks Discovery, which, considering my age, 76 years, I regard as remarkable. Very sincerely yours, High Point, N. C. SAM A. HOOVER,
